Jamie Swearingen Joins F&M Bank as Business Banker

Galesburg, IL – Mike Holloway, Knox/Warren County President of F&M Bank is pleased to announce that Jamie Swearingen has been hired as a Business Banker. In this role, Jamie will serve as a liaison for business clients and will be responsible for maintaining existing relationships. Jamie will report to Trent Cox, Vice President Commercial Banking Manager.

Jamie brings extensive sales and business experience to the F&M Bank team. He started his career in 2013 at United Facilities. He then moved on to sales and finance positions in the auto industry from 2014 to present with the most recent position of Business Manager. In this capacity, he managed the legal paperwork, financing and gained experience in lending operations while acquiring and building relationships.

Jamie holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law Enforcement and Justice Administration from Western Illinois University.

We are pleased to add Jamie to our commercial banking team. "Together with our current team, Jamie will make a substantial impact on our ability to provide top notch service to our current clients and prospective clients. We look forward to the opportunities this will provide", says Mike Holloway, Knox County President.

Jamie was born and raised and currently resides in Abingdon with his Australian Shepherd named Brady.
